

QUESTIONING CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

"People are worth more than the worst act of their life..." -- Sr. Helen Prejean

Session Four: Radical Forgiveness

What are some of the realizations folks have to come to before forgiveness is possible?

How did Lloyd LeBlanc's witness change Sr. Helen's understanding of forgiveness?

Describe the aspect of LeBlanc's "path" that stands out most for you.

How are victims' families trapped and/or re-victimized by the cultural expectations surrounding the death penalty?

What are some of the practical expressions of living a life of reconciliation?
