

Ruth

Session 7:

Grace & Hospitality

1. Who do you identify with most easily in Ruth?
2. Who is most difficult for you to identify with and why?
3. When was a time that you felt bitter, like Naomi?
4. Who in today's world reminds you of the various characters in Ruth?
5. In what ways is Ruth a story of grace?
6. How is Ruth's story one of "undercover hospitality?"

7. What “foreign daughter-in-laws” are our faith communities and culture reluctant to welcome? At what cost?

8. How have any occasions of grace in your life been especially strange or unexpected?

9. What are the implications of this session’s material for your personal life? Your spiritual journey? For your local faith community?
