

THE CENTER FOR PROGRESSIVE CHRISTIANITY

Login Menu By Milonic.com
 Email Address Password

GO
Forget password? | Join Our Mailing List

- Home ▾
- News ▾
- About Us ▾
- Become A Contact
- Become An Affiliate
- Affiliates Area ▾
- Directory Of Affiliates
- Regional Networks
- Local Groups
- Event Calendar ▾
- Library ▾
- Links
- Store
- Message Boards

REVIEW

Living the Questions 2

Book Info | Order Now

Review By Dean Watt

TCPC affiliates receive a special 10% discount on all Living the Questions materials!

To Order this DVD with the TCPC 10% discount, please read this information first. www.livingthequestion.com 2007 Written and produced by Jeff Procter-Murphy and David Felten;

www.livingthequestions.com

The wisdom presented in this series of 21 sessions is demonstrated at the very beginning of each session in the choice of Rev. Tex Sample as the first presenter in each session and in the rugged desert background in which he stands as he tells his very personal homespun stories in his southern drawl manner. While all of the episodes offer a wealth of the finest scholarship, it is presented in brief, easily understood conversations by articulate men and women from a range of religious backgrounds.

A prior knowledge of neither the Bible nor the Christian faith is required to understand and appreciate the ideas presented in the program. A "novice" program participant will become well informed in the wide range of topics discussed.

The timely use of scenes from the Middle East make the material more currently alive and relevant.

A position that is basic to Progressive Christianity and to the DVD program is that our being fully Christian is a process and a journey that is forever ongoing, rather than a stand at a fixed set of beliefs. It requires our being able to accept the truth that God is forever the "Mystery" beyond our understanding and our human language.

Being free to sit comfortably while we see and hear such well known scholars and leaders as Marcus Borg, John Dominic Crossan, Mathew Fox, Bishop Spong, and John Cobb, plus other well qualified but less well known scholars, rather than

Search: Entire Library

Author

Title / Keywords

Subject

Season

Age

Text

Type

Search

Search In:

- Entire Library
- Books
- Articles
- Educational Materials
- Sermons
- Worship Materials
- Reviews

Submission:

Submit Library Item

An approach to Christianity that is inclusive, innovative, informed...

just read their writings, is such a pleasure. I felt a twinge of guilt that I was receiving so much valuable knowledge without the usual rigor of reading from books.

Some of the topics in the series are: Taking the Bible Seriously; Lives of Jesus; Evil, Suffering & A God of Love; The Myth of Redemptive Violence; Debunking the Rapture; Incarnation: Divinely Human; and Embracing Mystery.

The 21 sessions are comprehensive enough that program participants will most all gain a new and broader wealth of understanding of critical elements of our faith. And though the producers consider themselves Progressive Christians, very few of the more traditional believers will be offended by the material. While the producers are United Methodists, leaders and members of most all of the major protestant denominations will find the series enlightening and inspiring.

Contact Us | Privacy | Subscribe to ENews | Mailing List | Menu by Milonic.com
Copyright © 2006 The Center For Progressive Christianity