

LIBERATION

is about “being on a journey, being in a movement.” It’s “the process of coming into an awareness that there is definitely a better life for people to be had. Not just for myself but for all of us. The Church should be part of that. And where it is not, it is not the Church.”

Dr. Emilie Townes

in “Restoring Relationships”

From the DVD curriculum
“Living the Questions 2.0”

www.livingthequestions.com

